

DISTURBIO NARRATIVO

A solo performance by
MARIA ELENA VINDEL

WEDNESDAY MAY 31, 7:00 PM
HUMANITIES 4II
THEATER STUDIO LAB

*Performance will be in Spanish with English subtitles

Disturbio Narrativo explores the disturbing effects of sexual abuse in places like Honduras where machismo and the lack of women rights combine to create a difficult existence for many.

Maria Elena Vindel Received her degree in Psychology from the Honduran National University, UNAH (2009). She is self-taught in many facets of performance: acting, radio personality, TV host, model, storyteller and art therapy. Maria Elena has been featured in the Honduran Films “Cuentos y Leyendas de Honduras” (2014) and “Un Lugar en el Caribe” (2015), she has produced and acted in several works including: “La Loba” (2011), “Disturbio Narrativo” (2013) and “Las Otras” (2014). Founder of “Gekó's Collective Oral Narrative Central America,” she performs as an actress and scenic narrator, storyteller as well as conducting Art Therapy workshops.

*Vindel is Visiting Artist of UCR's Department of Theater Film & Digital Production